PETROSINO VICTIM OF THE CAMORISTS

(Special from United Press.)
Naples, May 26.—Further evidence that Joseph Petrosino, the New York detective who was mysteriously shot to death in Palermo, was a victim of the "Black Hand" organization or Black Hand Society, came to light today among the documents found in connection with the case of Errie Alfano, the Camorist leader here who is waiting trial on a charge of complicity in the murder of a couple named Cuculo who were also affiliated with the Camorists. The documents include a telegram sent to the chief of police of Naples saying that he (Petrosino) had discovered Alfano's hiding place in New York and offering to surrender him to the Italian authorities if formally requested to do so. Alfano subsequently escaped from New York but was captured by the Italian police through the aid of Petrosino. The authorities are convinced that the Neapolitan Camorist plotted the murder.

Tolstoy's Publisher Sentenced to Jail

St. Petersburg, May 26.—Nicolai Selden has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for publishing Tolstoy's "Thou Shalt Not Kill" and other political pamphlets.

May Wheat Deal Ends This Week

Chicago, May 26.—May wheat shorts have only four days more before they must settle. The last delivery day for the May option is Saturday, and there is little indication that anything will happen to break the grip of Jas. A. Patten on the market.

Attorney W. H. Ely Died Early Today

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, May 26.—After an illness of three days, William H. Ely, one of the leading attorneys of this city, died at his home here early today from pleuro-pneumonia. Mr. Ely was born in Hartford in 1856 being the son of William Brewster and Elizabeth Morgan Ely and a descendant of Nathan Ely, one of the settlers of Hartford. He was a graduate of Amherst and was admitted to the bar in Hartford in 1877 and from that date practiced in Winsted until late in the eighties. He is survived by a wife and one son.

BRIDGEPORT BOY WILL RECEIVE HOLY ORDERS

James P. Moran to be Ordained by Archbishop Farley in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Included in the number of young men who will receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York, Saturday June 5 is James P. Moran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florence Moran of 1882 Main St., this city. The sacrament will be administered by Archbishop John M. Farley, D.D. Mr. Moran will celebrate his first solemn high mass in this city, on Sunday morning, June 6, at St. Patrick's church at 10:30 o'clock.

Initiations have already been received in this city to attend the services at the cathedral in New York. These services are very impressive. The young priest is a native of this city and a graduate of St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, Yonkers, N.Y. As a boy he served at the altar of St. Patrick's church in this city, his religious spirit impressing his parents and the pastor of the church Rev. J. B. Nihil. After studying in the schools of this city, Father Moran took a preparatory course at Niagara Preparatory School and then at Niagara University, graduating from that institution of learning he entered Georgetown University at Philadelphia, and then to Dunwoodie. Father Moran's training has been extended, even more so than most of the young men who enter the priesthood.

Ninety-Six Naval Cadets Physically Unfit for Service

Washington, May 26.—Ninety-six out of the total of 780 cadets at the Naval Academy are physically unfit for service. This startling information has been conveyed to Secretary Meyer by Captain John M. Bowyer, who will succeed Capt. Badger next month as Commandant of the Naval School at Annapolis. The young men for the most part are suffering with heart trouble and defective eyesight.

Cotton Manufacturers Score New York Exchange

Richmond, Va., May 26.—Resolutions were adopted by the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association meeting at the Jefferson Hotel, expressing approval of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange as a market for spot cotton, and deprecating the speculative element declared to be in control of the New York cotton market.
